

RESET

An aerial photograph of a university campus. The buildings are primarily light-colored with prominent red roofs. A tall, multi-story building with a central tower and a pointed spire is a focal point. In the background, a large body of water, likely a lake, stretches across the horizon under a clear sky. The foreground shows a paved area and a green lawn.

Secrets have a way of surfacing eventually - they can't stay buried forever.

A transfer student, steps into the elite world of Saint Catherine's Boarding School, where the children of the world's most influential families are educated.

She'll work to investigate the nefarious happenings at Saint Catherine's and resolve conflicts among students. No injustice would go unpunished on her watch.

GENRE: MYSTERY / DRAMA

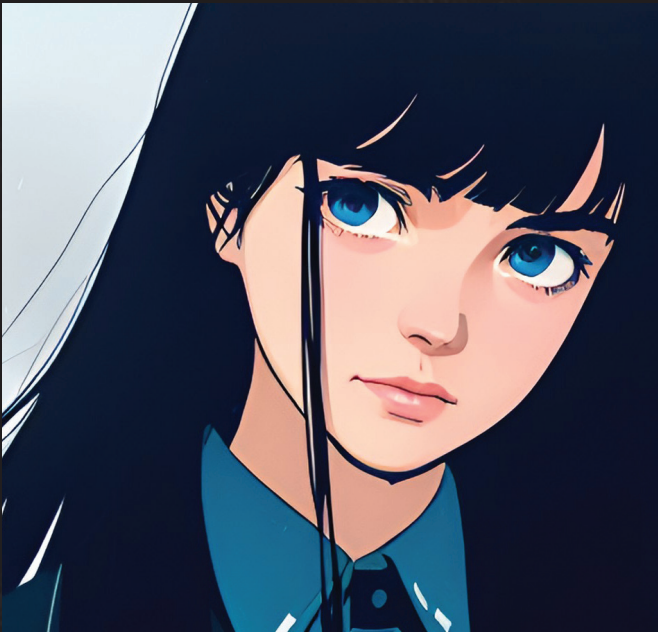

TV Series Pilot

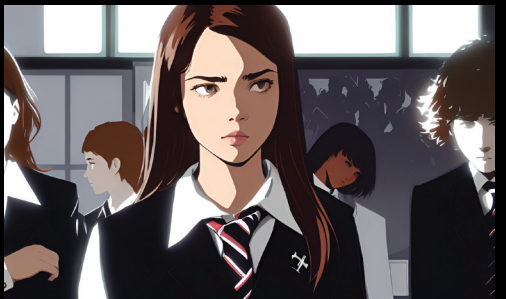

Alice McCain is a new transfer student at Saint Catherine's Academy, a coeducational international boarding school, where the heirs of the most influential families in the world are educated. With the help of her new friends, she will create a secret society that will assist students confront complicated personal issues: bullying, discrimination, teen pregnancy, abortion, favoritism, chauvinism, household drug abuse, sexual orientation, academic stress, terminal diseases, rape and many more.

But there's more than personal problems at stake at Saint Catherine's. The school hides a sinister past, and mysterious secrets haunt its corridors and classrooms. Alice also harbors a secret torment of her own...

CHARACTERS

The full version will only be available after careful consideration.
Thank you for your understanding.